Miss Emily C. Nolin will resume her music class the first Monday in September.

THE UNIT LAW

What the Anti-Saloon League Wants For All the Counties

The Rev. Charles L. Collins, Superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League in Kentucky, has outlined the plan of campaign during the coming year.

Mr. Collins stated that the League would not try to get the Legislature to pass a bill shutting out liquor from the entire state, as has been reported, but rather will make an effort to get the present County Unit Law operative in all counties of the state regardless of the size of the cities therein.

Cartmel extracts teeth without pain

Mr. Isaiah Grigby of Tollesboro, a most worthy and venerable citizen and staunch friend of THE PUBLIC LEDGER, was in the city yesterday and today. He is visiting his son, Mr. Oscar Grigby of the Revenue service. The former is in his 77th year and quite hale and hearty. He came here to witness the Appellate Convention and enjoyed the fun like a youngster.

The Augusta Chronicle is still after the Hon. W. A. Byron, the Brooksville spellbinder, employed by the Society of Equity to stump the Burley District in the interest of the farmers' tobacco pool. Mr. Byron sold his half interest in a crop of tobacco to the American Company and the tobacco growers of old Bracken are "from Missouri" and want to be shown the whyfores.

"All In!" Only Referring Fall Clothes.

We are anxious to show them, to show you what "pretty fair judges" consider the acme of perfection in Ready-to-Wear Clothing. All the new colorings, patterns and styles are embraced in our swell toggery. Our "College Brand" Clothes for younger men are extreme in style, yet far from undesirable "loudness;" they are distinctive in cut and character; at the highest quality, yet moderately priced. "Boys," come in and let us show them to you. We are growing fonder of our Men's and Boys' Shoe Department each succeeding season. It's a pleasure to sell shoes and know the wearer will be perfectly satisfied. That's the kind of Shoes we sell, for either dress, business or working purpose. Our entire line of Fall Shoes ready for your inspection.

L. T. Gaebke & Co. have just received their first shipment of Peacock Coal.

This is the time for every farmer to select his seed corn in the field and hang it up in a dry place before frost comes. Those who did this last year were well paid for their pains.

A sum in the neighborhood of $1,000 has been subscribed toward a new Baptist Church at Sardis.

Mrs. Anna Thompson, a sister of Miss Minnie Duncan of Mayslick, died of consumption this week at her home at Mt. Olivet.

The Ashland City Council has offered a reward of $100 for information that will lead to the arrest and conviction of persons who aided George Adams, charged with attempted assault, to get out of Jail. Governor Beckham will be asked to offer $500 reward for Adams's capture.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Jewel Rice will shortly go to housekeeping in a cottage on Carter avenue, Ashland.

Ex-Governor W. O. Bradley is to deliver the address at Labor Day exercises at Lexington next Monday.

OUR SECOND GREAT SEMI-ANNUAL CLEARANCE SALE

Begins Monday, August 12th,

And continues until every job in our house is sold. Last summer we contracted for extra advertising space in order to draw your attention to our sale; advertised a great and sweeping clean-up sale; stuck to the letter to what we advertised, and as a result had the most satisfactory Buggy Sale ever held in Maysville carrying over one buggy only. This year we do not intend to have one rig left in our repository, and are marking the vehicles at such ridiculously low prices, and backing them up with such a strong guarantee, that you cannot help but buy if you are needing a rig of any kind. The case is this: We have the Vehicles and need the money; you have the money and need the Vehicles. Now is your opportunity.

We include in the sale all Buggies, Runabouts, Surreys, Phaetons and Carts in our repository. Don't you think it will pay you to investigate?

Beginning tomorrow, September 1st, train No. 5 on the C. and O., now arriving here at 10:09 a. m., will arrive at 2:32 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Roetken of Covington were in the city yesterday. Mr. Roetken was a delegate to the Republican Convention, and his charming wife will be pleasantly remembered as Miss Mary Scudder, a native of this city.

Miss Johnson's School of Shorthand begins a new session Monday, September 2d. Every preparation has been made to give students a thorough and satisfactory course during the coming year, and it is well for those wishing to study to begin the work promptly.

There was no hoodoo attached to this 23. Some months ago Squire W. H. Rice was disposing of tickets in a raffle for a horse, and among a number in this city who invested was Mr. H. J. Shea, the Second street stove and hardware man. The ticket cost him 23 cents; yesterday he was notified that he was the winner of a $200 horse. The gentleman is now in a quandary what to do with his prize, and any one wanting a fine equine can get a bargain by calling on Mr. Shea.

An L. and N. Train in Collision With a Traction Engine

Yesterday morning Bud Sweet, in charge of a traction engine hauling a threshing and separator, was caught in the middle of a bad fix and suffered financially in consequence.

In crossing the L. and N. track near W. H. Yancy's place the traction engine stalled when the separator was astride the roadbed and Sweet was unable to move it.

The 9:05 Southbound passenger train was due and before a man could go down the track and flag the engineer, the train hove in sight, coming at a 30-mile gait, and before you could say Jack Robinson, struck the separator amid beam and knocked it into Kingdom Come.

The traction engine did not suffer by the collision.

The locomotive lost its cowcatcher and headlight and was otherwise damaged, but continued to make its regular run.

CALL FOR REPUBLICAN CONVENTION.

By order of the Republican Executive Committee, the Republicans of Mason county are called to meet in mass convention on Monday, September 2d, 1907, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Representative from Mason county.

W. D. COCHRAN, Chairman.

A. M. January, Secretary.

MASSACHUSETTS wants free peanuts while protecting the sacred codfish from its New Foundland rival.—Rochester Post Express.

Does any one believe that the Southern Railway spends 90 cents for every dollar it earns in North Carolina? Railroads are not built that way.

If the Taft meeting was a "frost," Republicans would like to have nothing but freezing weather from now until election day.—Lexington Leader.

THE late A. J. CASSATT, President of the Pennsylvania Railroad, used to pride himself on never losing his temper, no matter what the provocation. Moral: He died young.

EDITOR WATTERSON says that Justice JOHN M. HARLAN is the one great Kentuckian left in the public service, and it must be remembered that Mr. HARLAN is a Republican.

THE Southern road increased its earnings last year from 53 to 56 millions. The L. and N. increased its earnings from 45 to over 50 millions. This year they are each increasing at the rate of over $300,000 a month. This does not look like ruin.—Louisville Post.

STUYVESANT FISH used his fist as a trust buster without effect.

THE world do move. Advices from Berlin say that "JOHNNY" REIFF, the American jockey, has been engaged to ride for a prominent German turfman at a salary of $50,000. It is indeed going some when a racehorse rider gets the same salary as the President of the United States.

THE Kentucky State Journal declares that Governor TAYLOR is "afraid of immunity." Why, no he isn't. He's enjoying perfect immunity in Injany; something he wouldn't have if he bit at the Goebelite bait. Give TAYLOR the same brand of "judicial immunity" that JIM HARGIS enjoys, and he'll come back to Kentucky in a hurry.

THE opening of the Democratic campaign takes place at Lexington today. It will be a notable occasion, firstly, because JIM HARGIS, arch-convicted murderer and chief of the Breathitt county assassination combine, will be there to applaud his chief, Governor BECKHAM. Crapps stuck to HARGIS and saw that his Special Judges gave him immunity; now JIM will stick to the Governor and deliver the goods in November.

WHAT DO EDITORS LIVE ON?

Hasel Green Herald.

While doing some shopping in one of our grocery stores last evening we chanced to hear a little boy ask his father what that man was buying beans.

"That is our editor," said the father.

"What do Editors live on?" said the inquisitive little urchin.

"Why do you ask that question?" said the indulgent father.

"Because I heard you say you had taken our home paper for three years and had never paid a cent for it."

To save the father embarrassment we left the store, but it is safe to predict that the child got spanked when the father got him home.

IN THE OLD HOME

An Unpleasant Predicament

I undressed and threw myself on the bed, too tired even to light the gas, but glad to be home again after my absence abroad. Why no one had met me at the station in answer to the telegram I had sent from New York, I could not explain. I was much disappointed, but eagerly hastened to the house. There I found everything in darkness and, thinking the folks had probably not received the message telling of my unexpected leave of absence and had gone to the theater, I went up to my room and was soon fast asleep.

Next morning I was aroused by a tapping on my door. Drowsily I answered something about being sleepy and rolled over again. How much longer I slept I do not know, but again I was awakened by a more insistent knock. Remembering Bob's intense delight in the past in atrociously tormenting me whenever he thought I wanted to stay in bed, I answered as grudgingly as of old:

"Quit that pounding, won't you, and let me alone!"

"Why, papa, you cross old bear, you!" I heard a silvery voice exclaim. "I'm coming right in to pull you out if you aren't up before I count three. Come, now—one!"

Thunderstruck at the sound of a voice so different from what I had expected, I sat bolt upright, not quite certain I was not dreaming. As I did so my eyes fell upon the furnishings of the room, and, by the sunlight streaming in, I could see they were not those of the den I had left a year before. Everything was changed. Instantly I realized that some one must now be in possession of our old home, though for what reason or how long I had no time to conjecture. It was startling enough to know that I was in somebody else's bed and might have some difficulty in explaining my presence there. Moreover, if that—

"Two!"
Horror of horrors! The full meaning of my unfortunate position began to dawn upon me. If I were to utter so much as a single word my voice would doubtless betray me, while, if I attempted to bar the door—the cold sweat oozed out on my face and limbs. "Three!" triumphantly; "I'm coming."

With an involuntary movement I clutched the bed covers and drew them over my head, as if the hiding of my face would end the matter. Just then the knob turned; the door creaked. I heard the rattle of a skirt. With a bound I reached the door before it had opened very far and set my weight against it.

"Why, papa, what is the matter? Let me in at once. There—you can't stop me now." An arm and foot of feminine proportions squeezed through the aperture before I could prevent them. To push harder was only to injure the innocent possessor, yet close that door I must.

"I'm going to get in, see if I don't," and a tangled mass of golden hair pushed partly into the opening, while the extended hand groped ominously to and fro, seeking to find and push me away. Finally the fingers touched my wrist and closed tightly around it. I could not shake them off.

"Please let me in, papa. You never acted so—!" The sentence remained unfinished and broke off in a frightened gasp.

Suddenly I thought of the mirror I had caught a glimpse of at the side of the room, and looked up to see a pair of terror-stricken eyes gazing wildly into my own. For a full half-minute we stood there, then the hold upon my hand relaxed, the arm and curls slowly withdrew, and I heard her sink to the floor.

A moment later I was in the hall, dashing water upon an upturned face, from which every trace of color had fled, forgetful of the fact that I was a stranger and only partly clad.

But the rest of the story, and what came of it, is much too long to narrate here. Suffice it to say, that my mother had sold the homestead and started on a trip to Europe, seeking to surprise me by an unannounced visit. An estimable family had been the purchasers, and the father, by some strange coincidence, had been detained in the city that evening and neglected to notify his wife of his absence. His daughter—
But that is another story.

Teeth as Souvenirs.
A curio collector reports an unprecedented demand for false teeth.

"It is the teeth of famous personages deceased that are wanted," he said. "I don't know for sure what has started the boom in artificial teeth. Ever since I have been in this business I have had occasional requests from eccentric patrons for a set of somebody's teeth, but in the last few months inquiries have simply poured in concerning the teeth of men prominent in the last century. I am inclined to think that this craze for teeth has been stimulated by the report that Washington's false teeth had been stolen out of a museum in Baltimore.—N. Y. Sun.

Beginning right.
The surest way of making the world better is to begin with ourselves. Until we have fought our own sins, and come up against the deceitfulness of our own hearts, we cannot be wise warriors for the right, or merciful helpers to the fallen. Until we have learned self-denial, obedience and love, we will be of very little use in the world's dark places. Being good is the threshold of doing good.

At the Germantown Fair yesterday Sheriff Mackey, in his drag net for evil doers, caught Dan O'Brien of this city and King Cotton of Newport running a gambling device. They were held to the Mason Circuit Court in the sum of $200 each. O'Brien gave bond and King Cotton went to Jail.

COURIER-JOURNAL FIRE

Machinery Intact and Will Soon Be in Operation

THE LEDGER yesterday briefly noted the fire at the Courier-Journal Building in Louisville, which broke out at an early hour Friday morning and for the first time in its entire forty years of history, The Courier-Journal was compelled to come out yesterday morning from a plant not its own.

The fire originated from unconfined chemicals in the plant of the Tinsley-Mayer Engraving Company, on the third floor of the building.

The heaviest loss, amounting to several hundred thousand dollars, will fall on The Courier-Journal and Times, and the loss of other occupants of the building will reach between $40,000 and $50,000. The heaviest losers outside the newspapers were the Tinsley-Mayer Engraving Company, about $10,000; the Lemon Jewelry Store, about a similar amount from water damage, and Harvey Joiner and Thomas E. Grove, artists, whose monetary loss grieves them less than their life work went up in a few minutes' smoke.

The building and contents were insured for about 80% of their value.

Public Sale.

The W. T. Buckler Farm of about 75 acres, lying partly in Fleming and partly in Mason county, near Johnson Station, on the Johnson Station and Mayslick Turnpike, will be sold at public auction, held on the premises, on

Most Physic Leave You Weak
Dyspepsia often causes intense distress and pain, which is quickly relieved by a thorough physic, but unless the proper remedy is taken the patient is very apt to find himself a slave to the "Physic Habit."
This is caused by the severe shock which the drug gives to the intestinal muscles making them so weak they are unable to voluntarily perform their functions. The bowels cannot act of their own accord and so the physic which caused the trouble is taken again but in a larger dose in order to accomplish results. The need for such an artificial treatment becomes chronic and the size of the dose must be gradually increased. The patient at last becomes a confirmed victim of the "Physic Habit," and his strength and health rapidly leave him.
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin
does not act like other laxatives. Instead of weakening the intestinal muscles it so strengthens them that they can perform their functions unaided. It is a pleasant remedy to take, and rapidly strengthens all the muscles through its great tonic properties. In cases of dyspepsia it quickly relieves the pain and soon affects a permanent cure.
All druggists sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at 50 cents and $1 a bottle.

Too much rain for the farmer.

Wesley M. E. Church is going to rack for want of a new roof.

The Junior Order, assisted by the G. A. R., raised a staff and flag on our schoolhouse two years ago, but it fails to wave during school.

The rain poured down the first of the reunion, but the second day made up for two days and a large crowd and good speaking made it a success all round.

The Basket Meeting Sunday conducted by Elders Degman and Hall was an enjoyable and successful one, as to a good turnout and good preaching. Come again, all of you next year.

Mrs. Annie Himes, mentioned in last week's items, died a few days after her mother and the remains were interred at the Wilson family grave yard.

There was a very good turnout of old soldiers at the reunion in Mower Park on Saturday and they formed and made a parade with the Trinity Order of Redmen. The rain the first day kept those from a distance away. Our Maysville, Tolleboro and Manchester comrades failed to attend. Now old boys, if God let's you live until next year—and I think he will you come to the Mower Park reunion if you, are not sick.

EAST LIMESTONE.

Mrs. H. A. Power was here on business the past week.

Master Tommy Swartz of Flemingsburg is visiting his uncle, Mr. Nick King.

Wheat threshing has been somewhat debarred this week on account of rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Tucker have sold their farm in this vicinity to Mr. Clarence Phillips of Orangeburg.

Miss Emma Stevens and brother, Bert, spent from Friday until Monday with friends at Ewing and attended the Fair.

Stock dealers from this neighborhood attended Court at Flemingsburg Monday and reported a large crowd in the little city.

The ice cream supper given by the Stone-lick Baptist Church Saturday night at Orangeburg was largely attended, all reporting plenty of cold cream, delicious cakes and a large crowd.

Mr. Harry McElfresh had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse Monday. Veterinary Surgeon Phillips of Maysville was summoned, but he at first glance pronounced the poor suffering animal past all medical aid. The horse was valued at about $200.

Mrs. Sue E. Williams and daughter have returned home, after a pleasant visit to the family of Mrs. J. W. Tully of Cottageville and attended the annual reunion and basket meeting at Mower Park, Lewis county. The grounds were beautifully decorated with flags amidst nature's green canopy, where a large and joyous crowd assembled each day. Reva Degman, Hall, Tomison, Moore and others delivered able addresses. The music by the Boggs brothers was well rendered. A bountiful dinner was served on the ground each day, which goes to show that the Lewis county people never do anything by halves.

HAY AND STRAW.

We are in the market for Baled Hay and Straw. See us before selling.

MAGNOLIA FLOUR MILLS.

M. O. Winfrey is to be the Democratic orator at Brooksville Monday, September 9th.

Ray Knabenshue, the airship man, lost his big sky-craft in a fire at Des Moines, Iowa. Loss $10,000.

Andrew Carnegie will be asked to donate $15,000 for the interior decorations of the new Public Library Building at Louisville.

Mr. Hugh O'Donnell, en route from New York, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Eunice O'Donnell of Bridge street. He leaves today for his home in Chicago accompanied by his interesting children, Hugh, Jr., and Miss Eunice, whose departure after a delightful vacation visit, the younger set of Maysville society will regret.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assailing nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

TESTED AND PROVEN

There is a Heap of Solace in Being Able to Depend Upon a Well-Earned Reputation

For months Maysville readers have seen the constant expression of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills, and read about the good work they have done in this locality. Not another remedy ever produced such convincing proof of merit. A. W. McClanahan of A. W. and B. P. McClanahan, grocers, at 121 Second street, Maysville, Ky., says:

"I can endorse Doan's Kidney Pills more heartily today than I did five years ago when I told the Maysville people that this medicine had cured me of severe kidney trouble and backache that had bothered me for twenty years and seemed to be growing worse all the time. I repeat that I can more confidently recommend Doan's Kidney Pills today than I did in that testimonial because my cure has been permanent and I have had no kidney trouble for nearly five years. As proof that I am a firm believer in Doan's Kidney Pills I will be only too pleased to reiterate the above to anyone who may inquire."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
